

AREIAC Conference 3rd and 4th July 2017

RE: Shifting Sands In Progress

2017 Conference will be taking place in York at The Park Inn Hotel.

Bookings are now open for this 1 or 2 day event.

Day 1 will focus on Progression and Assessment in RE - we will be informed and engaged by a variety of speakers such as Dave Francis, Dilwyn Hunt, Verity Holloway and Pat Hannam who have recently been innovative in this field.

Day 2 will focus on Curriculum Development and Resources to inspire and raise standards in teaching and learning in RE
Key Note Speaker: Professor David Leat, Newcastle University

Located in the city centre the hotel is ideally situated for exploring the beautiful city of York. With its RBG Bar & Grill with fantastic views overlooking the River Ouse the hotel offers the perfect venue to both relax and work.

- Car parking @ £6 per 24 hours (special rate)
- 9 mins walk from train station
- 49 km from Leeds Bradford airport

Why not make it a real break and enjoy the beautiful city of York over the weekend?

For those who will be with us on Sunday, we are considering organising a river cruise. Please let us know if you are interested in joining us.

The Park Inn is offering us
Friday night @ £105 B&B single /£115 double
Saturday night @ £145 B&B single / £155 double

Alternatively the Travelodge Micklegate is situated directly opposite and may offer competitive rates.

	Members	Non Members
Residential:
Sunday – Tuesday	£395	£400
Monday – Tuesday	£315	£325
Guests sharing room @ £10 per night
Guest Monday dinner @ £35
Non Residential:
Monday with dinner	£160	£170
Monday only	£130	£140
Tuesday only	£130	£140