

AREIAC Conference 2nd and 3rd July 2018

REflecting Plurality in RE

at The Bristol Hotel, Bristol

Bookings are now open for this 1 or 2 day conference for advisers, consultants, inspectors, teachers and anyone interested in promoting excellence in RE.

Our engaging and inspiring speakers include:

Denise Cush, Professor of Religion and Education at Bath Spa University

Bob Jackson, Emeritus Professor, University of Warwick

Dr Farid Panjwani, Director, Centre for Research and Evaluation in Muslim Education (CREME), UCL Institute of Education, University College London

This year's conference speakers and workshop leaders will explore plurality within and across religion and allow delegates to consider and reflect on how this impacts on the religious education we provide in the classroom.

Located on the waterfront in the city centre the hotel is ideally situated for exploring the beautiful city of Bristol. With its River Grille restaurant and The Shore Café Bar with open air terrace both overlooking the harbour, the hotel offers the perfect venue to both relax and work.

- Car parking @ £5 per stay (special rate - pay on each exit)
- 16 mins walk / 5 mins bus from Temple Meads train station
- 20 mins Bristol Flyer bus from Bristol airport to Temple Meads

Why not make it a real break and enjoy the beautiful city of Bristol over the weekend?

The Bristol Hotel is offering us Friday and / or Saturday night @ £90 B&B single or double occupancy.

Alternatively, there are of course other hotels available nearby including two Travelodges that may offer competitive rates.
