

Standing Advisory Council on Religious Education

Annual Report 2019/2020

This report covers the work of the Cumbria SACRE
for the period September 2019 to August 2020

What are SACRE's Responsibilities?

To advise the Local Authority (LA) on matters connected with:

1. Religious Education (RE) This year SACRE has:

- Sent out a Feedback form to schools to complete (to be repeated annually)
- Provided updated Units of Work for RE in KS1 and KS2 (including a Transition Unit 'Buried Treasure' for KS2/3)
- Produced a booklet on Visits and Visitors for RE for schools
- Produced a termly SACRE newsletter.

2. Collective Worship in community schools

SACRE has published Guidance to Schools on Collective Worship, to support schools in their statutory responsibility to deliver daily acts of Collective Worship.

3. Determinations - To allow any exception to the law that Collective Worship be broadly or mainly Christian

SACRE has received no requests for a determination for exemption from the law.

4. To hear any complaints about RE or Collective Worship

SACRE hears any complaints brought to the LA about RE and collective worship. No complaints from parents were received this year.

5. To publish an annual report on its work

This document is the annual report for the academic year 2019-2020.

Anyone wishing to receive the minutes of termly meetings can contact Sue McGaw by email sue.mcgaw@cumbria.gov.uk or visit Cumbria SACRE's website:

The SACRE Development plan identifies that the main areas of focus for 2020-2021 will be:

- Dissemination of Buried Treasure Unit of Work: What can we learn from religious texts? and Visits and Visitors for RE.
- Continue to increase teacher awareness of SACRE through newsletter and social media.
- Provision of governor training in RE across the county.
- Provision of a needs based CPD programme for RE 2020-21.
- Continue to raise profile and involvement in National Association for SACRE and other national RE organisations.
- Development of online based resources for RE with Cumbria Development Education Centre, including virtual visits for religion and worldviews (subject to funding application with Culham St Gabriel's).
- Continue to increase teacher RE networks across Cumbria through virtual opportunities e.g. RE Teach Meets.

Non members are welcome to attend, to observe SACRE meetings. Please contact Sue McGaw (email sue.mcgaw@cumbria.gov.uk) for confirmation of times and venues.

What is the SACRE Budget?

SACRE's budget covers the cost of meetings, venue expenses, supply cover for teacher members, postage, photocopying, travel expenses, and subscription costs for membership of national organisations for RE. Additional resources are obtained from the County Council when necessary for the review, development and publication of the revised Agreed Syllabus.

In the year 2019-2020 the total amount spent was £4,933.70 (Travel expenses £2103.70; Supply £675; Conference fees £1310; Update units of work £700; Subscriptions £205).

Twitter: @CumbriaSACRE. We welcome all schools in Cumbria to share photographic evidence of RE and Collective Worship using the hashtag #CumbriaSharingRE. The Twitter account also follows the key local and national organisations for RE and will re-tweet relevant updates.

Facebook: RE Teachers in Cumbria. This is a closed group for primary and secondary teachers in Cumbria to enable an information exchange for RE and CW, training, events and new resources. Cumbria SACRE members will also use this as a forum to keep teachers updated.

Religious Education Quality Mark – REQM

Schools can apply for three levels of the REQM award. A school's evidence and provision are assessed by an external assessor, against nationally recognised criteria. Cumbria SACRE encourages all schools to access the REQM assessment materials to use as an audit tool, even if they feel the time and cost of full accreditation is not an immediate priority. See <http://www.reqm.org/>. Gold Award holders in Cumbria are: Dowdales School, The Queen Katherine School and Bridekirk Dovenby CofE School. Please note that due to Covid-19, there are different measures in place for assessments.

Westhill Bid

Summer 2020 saw the completion of the final phase of the Buried Treasure Project with a day at Newbarns School with pupils from Year 6, and Year 7 students from Furness Academy. This also involved a wider reach of faith representatives beyond Cumbria SACRE. A project report has been written by Project Leader Karen O'Donoghue and has been sent to the Westhill Trust. A further outcome of the project has been to produce a unit of work in line with existing Units available for Cumbrian Schools. Written by Jane Yates, this unit is called: What can we learn from religious texts? Karen O'Donoghue and Jane Yates were invited to speak about the project at the NASACRE conference in May (which has now been deferred to November 2020). Building on the success of this project, an application has been made to Culham St Gabriel for a joint project with Cumbria Development Education Centre (CDEC) to involve faith representatives in providing an online platform for schools.

Visits and Visitors for Religious Education

Wendy Ridley (Buddhist faith member) collated a comprehensive 35 page document during 2019-2020 to update a directory for RE visits and visitors across Cumbria and beyond. This was a significant piece of work undertaken by the Cumbria SACRE Working Group members and has been well received by schools, and has attracted national attention. Several members of the working group (Shelia Gewolb, Karen O'Donoghue and David Pitkeathly) were guests on BBC Radio Cumbria to talk about the document.

North North West Hub

David Salmon, (LA Officer), and Dr Sheila Gewolb DL, (Jewish faith member), represented Cumbria SACRE at the North North West (NNW) SACRE hub meetings in November 2019, and March 2020 which took place at The Exchange, County Hall Preston.

The hub, formed in 2014, brings together smaller SACREs in the north-west region to provide reciprocal support on topical issues and share information and best practice. Other hub members in the group come from Blackburn, Blackpool, Bolton, Burnley, Bury, Cheshire West/Chester, Halton/Widnes, Lancashire, Rochdale, Warrington, Widnes and Wigan. Cumbria SACRE continues to be amongst the most active and well-supported in this group, hosting the only annual SACRE conference for RE teachers in this region.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic and restrictions, the group did not meet in the summer term, and it is hoped we can reconvene when it is appropriate to do so.

Topics discussed over the past year included the introduction of the Cumbria Directory for Places of Worship, which was very well received by hub members. Other SACREs offer similar resources: faith trails for schools which include visiting churches, synagogues and mosques, and the Building Bridges service in Lancashire. It was agreed that the message and quality of interfaith speakers should be controlled.

Hub members also reported that teachers appeared to be enthusiastic to improve their subject knowledge in RE as a result of the new Ofsted Inspection Framework. Training has now been better attended.

Cumbria shared the new monitoring proforma which was modelled on a previous example provided by Halton.

SACRE is pleased to receive photographic, written or anecdotal evidence of good work in RE and Collective Worship in Cumbria's schools. If you have things you wish to share please contact Sue McGaw on 01228 226805, email sue.mcgaw@cumbria.gov.uk
