

For those interested in following up the REC work in its RE and Worldview Project, the following two publications are recommended:

1. Select Literature Review of the international academic literature that gives access to the worldwide debate on worldview as exemplified in a number of subject disciplines. Go to <https://www.religiouseducationcouncil.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2021/01/REC-Worldview-Report-A4-v2.pdf>.
2. Discussion papers written by REC consultant Amira Tharani, who led a series of five consultation events in June 2020 where 13 leading academics discussed the implication of the literature review for teaching RE in schools. The discussion papers are Amira's "take" on the key themes that emerged from these events. Go to: <https://www.religiouseducationcouncil.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2021/01/The-Worldview-Project.pdf>.

The links to my own work, written in a personal capacity are:

1. Worldview in religious education: autobiographical reflections on The Commission on Religious Education in England final report (2020), British Journal of Religious Education, Vol 42(4), pp. 403-414. Available at <https://doi.org/10.1080/01416200.2020.1764497>
2. Worldviews in Religious Education with Bob Bowie and Farid Panjwani (2020), London: Theos. Available at <https://www.theosthinktank.co.uk/research/2020/10/21/worldviews-in-religious-education>.
